DESCRIBE THE PRESENT AND ORIGINAL (IF KNOWN) PHYSICAL APPEARANCE

The Blunt Family Cemetery is located on the west side of Thompson Creek on Kent Island on a neck of land formed by Thompson Creek and Warehouse Creek. The cemetery is located in an open field overlooking a small cove, near the site of an old house associated with the Blunt family. All that survives above ground on this site are a few tombstones surrounded by a post-and-rail fence and shaded by several trees. A list of known gravestones compiled by Mildred Schoch of Chester, Maryland has been included as an addenda to this report.

STATEMENT OF SIGNIFICANCE

This cemetery is all that survives above ground of historical interest on the old Blunt Farm. In 1838, this farm was given by Juliana Blunt to the Parish of Christ Church, along with other land in Talbot County. It was used as a Glebe Farm to support the minister, replacing a smaller Glebe on Cox Creek (QA-136), which had been sold by the parish a few years before to pay for construction of a new church.
